

As a flight attendant, I think that cell phones should not be able to be used in flight, due to safety and security issues.